VISIT THE
CITY OF AGIOS NIKOLAOS &
THE ISLAND OF SPINALONGA

Enjoy a memorable day trip to the charming city of Agios Nikolaos (47km from the Hotel) and the historic island of Spinalonga, both easily accessible from our hotel. Begin your adventure with a scenic drive along the beautiful Cretan coastline to Agios Nikolaos, a picturesque seaside town known for its vibrant atmosphere, stunning lake Voulismeni, and waterfront cafés. Stroll through the quaint streets lined with boutique shops and local markets, where you can discover unique souvenirs and enjoy the local cuisine in one of the many traditional tavernas.

After exploring Agios Nikolaos, head to the nearby port of Elounda for a short boat ride to the captivating island of Spinalonga. This small island is rich in history, once serving as a Venetian fortress and later as a leper colony. Wander through the well-preserved ruins, take in the stunning views of the turquoise waters, and learn about the island's fascinating past. The tranquil setting and historic ambiance make Spinalonga a truly unique destination.

Let our concierge assist in planning your day trip, including transportation and guided tours, to ensure a seamless and unforgettable experience. Whether you're looking to explore historical sites, enjoy local culture, or simply relax by the sea, a day trip to Agios Nikolaos and Spinalonga offers something for everyone.
