ARCHAEOLOGICAL SITE & MUSEUM OF ELEUTHERNA

Discover the rich history of Crete with a visit to the Eleutherna Archaeological Site and Museum, a hidden gem located within a distance ca 90km from our hotel. Nestled on the slopes of Mount Ida, this fascinating site offers a unique glimpse into the island's ancient past, dating back to the Geometric and Archaic periods. Explore the well-preserved ruins of an ancient city, including remnants of impressive buildings, sanctuaries, and burial sites that reveal the rich cultural and historical tapestry of the region.

After exploring the archaeological site, visit the Eleutherna Museum, which houses a remarkable collection of artifacts uncovered during excavations. The museum's exhibits showcase exquisite pottery, jewelry, and sculptures, providing a deeper understanding of the daily life, art, and rituals of ancient Cretans. With engaging displays and interactive elements, both the site and museum offer an educational and enriching experience for visitors of all ages.

Let us help you plan your visit to Eleutherna, where you can walk in the footsteps of ancient civilizations and uncover the captivating stories of Crete's past. This is an ideal excursion for history enthusiasts and curious travelers looking to experience the island's cultural heritage up close.
